

Dale Peterson

Dale Peterson is an accomplished executive manager with a diverse portfolio of business experiences ranging from the social services sector, family counselling, community-based programs, and long-range urban planning and development. He has experience working with small to large staff teams in both medium and large organizations. Dale also has extensive experience volunteering as a Peer Reviewer, Team Leader, and Commissioner for an international accreditation body (Council on Accreditation, New York, NY).

Dale is a creative and strategic thinker with a diverse business planning and evaluation acumen. He has superb analytical skills and strong management capabilities, which he successfully uses to collaborate with a broad range of stakeholders to identify, develop, and implement opportunities for increased efficiency and effectiveness across teams while perpetuating openness and transparency in the workplace and motivating staff to peak performance levels. He has a demonstrated record of initiative and success in giving executive leadership to organizations' business plan goals, objectives, and strategic priorities.

Dale holds a Master of Divinity from the Northwest Baptist Theological Seminary, a Master Arts from the University of Alberta, and a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Saskatchewan.

